

Dr. Steve Meek's

Calvary Comm. Church—Houston, TX

"Calvary Community Church has been enriched by the life and ministry of Suzy Seidel for almost 20 years. She and her husband, Larry, have led many small groups at Calvary; especially helping those new to us to become growing and serving disciples of Christ. It is with joy I commend to you the ministry God does through Suzy's life and teaching. Sold out to God, solid in his Word, Suzy will challenge and encourage those who hear her."

U.S. Prayer Center

"Suzy and Larry have been friends of ours for more than twenty years. Suzy has ministered in conferences, retreats, and seminars; she has addressed women's groups, singles groups, business leaders, and many prayer groups. In January 2008, the Lord instructed her to formalize this ministry. Suzy is a deeply committed woman of God, and we endorse her and her longtime work for the Lord. You would do well to invite her to minister to your group."

Somebody Cares America

"It is said that time reveals the character of a man or woman, and time has proven the character of Suzy Seidel through her life and ministry. Throughout the years, I've watched Suzy consistently display the character of Christ in her service at her church and in her community. In this world of complexities in which we live, many people are focused on their own place of need. But, there are those like Suzy, who continue to see a vision beyond herself. She ministers and reaches out with a servant's heart, presenting hope and possibilities. I applaud her desire to step into this new ministry and to bring the love of the Father to a world in desperate need. I'm honored to know and be associated with her. "

About Suzy

Born in a small town in central Ohio, Suzy grew up feeling uncommonly average. She achieved no major accomplishments, excelled at nothing in particular, and did not stand out in any way. Yet even in those early years she never gave up hope that God could somehow use her to bless others.

Suzy, who was raised along with her sister by her grandmother, was always encouraged to attend church and participate in typical church activities. As she grew, so did her desire to spend time alone with God. She couldn't wait to leave the house each morning for her mile long walk to school. This was the time she spent totally alone, talking with the One who was capturing her heart.

While attending college, Suzy married her best friend and high school sweetheart, Larry Seidel.

During this season of her life, Suzy began sensing that the Lord would one day use her to speak before others.

Almost 15 years later, in 1994, Suzy started meeting weekly with a small group of women in her living room. She began to pour into their lives rich deposits of the same grace she had received from the Lord throughout her life.

Since that time Suzy has been a popular speaker at singles retreats, business meetings, women's groups, taught Bible studies, ministered in small groups and conferences, led prayer groups, spoken in women's meetings, and has even done motivational speaking in the business sector.

She is ever passionate and zealous for the things of God, and has a heart for others to experience His love and to know His heart for them. Her desire to point blinded eyes to Christ, especially when they are blinded by hopelessness, can easily be heard through her messages of hope. To see lives renewed and restored because their vision has been transformed is the cry of her heart.

Suzy and Larry live with their four children in Houston, Texas. They have been married for 28 years. These days Suzy is busy writing, speaking, and can often be found at a local coffee shop, sharing a cuppa and her life with a friend.

My True North

E'PIPH.A.NY (NOUN) [I PIFF əNEE]

SUDDEN REALIZATION. A SUDDEN INTUITIVE LEAP OF UNDERSTANDING, ESPECIALLY THROUGH AN ORDINARY BUT STRIKING OCCURANCE

Life-defining moments. These are the events and decisions that shape the direction and focus of our lives from that moment on.

I had one of these epiphany moments several years ago while teaching a series of lessons on BECOMING LIKE CHRIST.

At the conclusion of one of my classes a young woman stayed behind. She didn't know then but what she said to me that morning was forever going to change the way I thought about ministry.

Coming near she said, "Suzy, I really love listening to you speak. After I leave I may not remember everything you've said, but "I always leave wanting to be more like Jesus."

That sentiment became my True North of ministry. That defining moment in my life when I clearly saw what was most important; what had infinite, eternal value.

I couldn't get the significance of that encounter out of my head. I still can't. Every time I speak I pray that when I leave those whom I have spent time with will simply want to be more like Jesus because of what they've heard from my life.
